

STAFFORDSHIRE
POLICE

Report

Police Pensions Board - Half Yearly Report on Injury Pensions

Author: People Services

Pensions Board Meeting Date: 2 February 2023

The Force's latest reviews of injury pensions began on 26 April 2017. By law, a review cannot result in an injury pension being reduced to less than Band 1 or increased to more than Band 4. The outcomes of completed reviews and reconsiderations are as follows:

No change due to there being no substantial alteration

Band 1 – 58 people
Band 2 – 8 people
Band 3 – 5 people
Band 4 – 2 people

Increases

Band 1 increased to Band 2 – 1 person
Band 1 increased to Band 4 – 1 person
Band 2 increased to Band 3 – 1 person

Reductions

Band 4 reduced to Band 1 – 1 person (by Regulation 33)
Band 4 reduced to Band 2 – 1 person (by Regulation 33)
Band 3 reduced to Band 1 – 5 people (of which 3 were by Regulation 33)
Band 3 reduced to Band 2 – 5 people (by Regulation 33)
Band 2 reduced to Band 1 – 8 people (of which 6 were by Regulation 33)

Active appeals ongoing against the Selected Medical Practitioner's report: None

Number of injury pensions suspended: None